The screenshot shows the TEL website homepage. At the top left is the TEL logo with the tagline "free access to great resources for Tennesseans". A navigation bar contains links for "Home", "About TEL", "FAQs", and "Contact Us". The main content area is divided into several sections:

- Search for Articles: Features a search box with the placeholder "Enter Keyword(s)" and a "Search" button. Below the search box are links for "Browse Resources by: School Grades | Subject | ALL TEL Databases | Advanced Search".
- TEL Shortcuts: A row of five icons representing "Issues", "Research", "Test Prep", "Newspapers", and "Genealogy". Below this is a section for "EBSCO's Points of View Reference Center" with a brief description and a logo.
- new to tel: A green header section containing two items:
 - World Book Encyclopedia: Accompanied by the World Book logo. An annotation box points to it with the text "Great for all ages!".
 - TEL Lesson Plans: Accompanied by an image of a green apple and a chalkboard with a triangle and the formula $A = \frac{1}{2}bh$. An annotation box points to it with the text "Free ideas & lesson plans!".

The Tennessee Electronic Library is made possible through funding provided by the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee and the U. S. Institute of Museum and Library Services. TEL is administered by the Tennessee State Library and Archives, a division of the Office of Secretary of State, Secretary Tre Hargett.
